JUGHEAD NO.135 AUG. MEMBERSHIP—FIFTEEN CENTS

FIRST PRIZE — $5.00

REPORTER
JOY McLEOD
724 Paden Drive
Birmingham, Ala.

Dear Archie,

My name is Joy McLeod and I am twelve years old. I live in Birmingham, Alabama. Last summer my family and I went to Australia. We went there mainly because my mother is an Australian and has her relatives there.

We left on June 9th on a sunny summer day. The plane stopped in Dallas, Texas, then in Los Angeles. Then we took a jet to Hawaii. It was very quaint and beautiful there. After a day or so, we took a jet to Sydney, Australia. When we got off the plane it was early morning and very cold. Then we went to Melbourne where my uncle and his family live.

After a few weeks we went to my aunt and uncle's farm in New South Wales. They had cows, sheep, horses, and chickens. We saw quite a few kangaroos there, as they are quite common there. Then we went to Fiji and then to Tahiti. Finally, after a wonderful trip, we went home to the good old United States.

SECOND PRIZE — $3.00

REPORTER
ALEX RAMON

Dear Archie,

I am of Indian nationality, and my people are called the Papagoes. We are related to the Spanish people in Old Mexico. The Papagoes live by the border in the Southeastern part of Arizona. There are thirteen different tribes all over the state besides us. Our close relatives are the Pimas, who have a different accent in speaking our native language. Most of the Papagoes follow the Catholic faith and some go by Presbyterian ways.

The population on the reservation is about 59,410, similar to the capital here in our state which is Phoenix. One of the most popular events here is the fiesta, held on certain holidays. At this time the people all over the reservation are invited to eat in the big feast-house and socialize for the rest of the night.

Dear Archie,

I've had a very exciting life. I was born in Highland, Illinois. When I was five months old I moved with my family to Texas. My father is in the Air Force. When I was five we moved to Bellvue, Nebraska. I stayed there for three years and then we went to Puerto Rico, where we are now. I'm not sure where we are going after our three years are up here. This year my father will have spent seventeen years in the Air Force. When we leave here he'll have eighteen. Then we will go somewhere for two years. You could call my family a traveling family.

Dear Archie,

My name is Mike Reiser. I am ten years old. My teacher's name is Mrs. Jack. I am learning French in school. My father's name is Jim and my mother's name is Wilma. My father is a mechanic and my mother is a beautician. I have one brother and two sisters.

My hobby is putting models together. My favorite sports are baseball and basketball. My family has a cabin down at Patterson Bay. I go swimming there every day. I have one cat and one dog. I am four feet, seven inches tall and I have blue eyes, brown hair and freckles.
